

Wills, Trusts & Estates

O'Sullivan Estate Lawyers promotes two associates to partner

(January 27, 2022, 1:40 PM EST) --

O'Sullivan Estate Lawyers LLP announced that associates, Stephanie Battista and Marly Peikes, have been promoted to partner.

The firm's release notes that Battista practises exclusively in estate and trust law, focusing on all aspects of estate planning and estate administration. Battista regularly advises clients on their succession plan including wills, trusts, powers of attorney and domestic contracts, including blended families, business owners and entrepreneurs, medical professionals, high net-worth clients and young couples, and clients with complex cross-border and multijurisdictional issues and needs.

Peikes' practice includes all aspects of estate and trust planning, estate administration and estate dispute resolution. Peikes focuses on assisting clients in organizing their financial affairs during their lifetime through creative estate planning strategies which balance each client's needs with corresponding estate administration tax and income tax minimization considerations, all while ensuring that each client's objectives are achieved and optimized.

Managing partner Margaret O'Sullivan commented that "Stephanie and Marly are key contributors to the firm's present and future success. They are talented lawyers who exemplify O'Sullivan Estate Lawyers' values of excellence and high-touch client service."